

Biography:

Who is Piyush Thapar?

Piyush is an Indian immigrant. In January 2020 he came to Canada. He was striving to establish his own social media marketing company from the day he landed in Canada. Working and studying in school in other part time employment. While working other part-time jobs and studying in school. Piyush specializes in guerrilla marketing and small business Internet advertising. He runs Facebook, Google AdWords, Content creation and social media management. Having high standards for his company was extremely essential to him because he feels that he can fulfil his work with those standards in mind and deliver outcomes to his customers that correspond to high standards. Throughout his journey Piyush has been able to help so many different small businesses and provided them with promotions that small businesses are usually deprived of or couldn't afford.

